

Custody Log Template

Print a stack of these and log events while they are fresh. Courts trust records made at the time, not memories reconstructed months later. Facts only: who, what, when, where.

Daily log entry

Date / time		Entry type (circle)	Exchange · Incident · Communication · Expense · School / medical
Children involved		Location
What happened (facts only — who, what, when, where)
Witnesses		Evidence (photos, texts, receipts)
Follow-up needed		Logged by / initials

Date / time		Entry type (circle)	Exchange · Incident · Communication · Expense · School / medical
Children involved		Location
What happened (facts only — who, what, when, where)
Witnesses		Evidence (photos, texts, receipts)
Follow-up needed		Logged by / initials

Tips: date and sign every entry · never edit an old entry — add a new one · attach the evidence you mention · keep it factual, a judge may read it.

Free from CustodyJournal.com — the digital version timestamps entries, stores photos and documents, and exports an attorney-ready report. Not legal advice.

